

Report from the Conference of the Center for Investigative Journalism of Montenegro “On the road to safety and protection“

Hotel Cue June 25, 2021

Organized by Center for Investigative Journalism of Montenegro a conference “On the road to safety and protection“ was held within the Project “How safe are the workers on our construction sites“ funded by the Ministry of Economic Development. Among the speakers at the conference were: Đina Janković from the Safety at Work Association of Montenegro (SWAM) and the representative of the BALcanOSH network, Zlatko Popović - labour inspector and coordinator of OSH in Montenegro, Jevrosima Pejović - Director General of Directorate for Labour and Employment (Government of Montenegro), Milka Tadić Mijović - Director of the Center for Investigative Journalism of Montenegro (CIN Montenegro), Jovana Bošković – Advisor on OSH, Ministry of Economic Development (MED), Slavoljub Ščekić – Editor-in-Chief of CIN

Montenegro and Goran Kapor – journalist,

ID Vijesti.

Dina Janković from the Safety at Work Association of Montenegro (SWAM) presented the strategic goals of the regional development of occupational safety and health (OSH) for the period 2019-2023:

1. Efficient legal framework (OSH policies),
2. Education / OSH education system,
3. Strengthening OSH capacity,
4. Promotion and raising awareness of OSH,
5. Records of OSH (injuries and occupational diseases),
6. Establishment of a National Council for OSH
7. Sectoral and cross-sectoral cooperation (at national, regional and international level)

