

Interview for RTV Budva

October 6, 2022

Dina Janković from the Safety at Work Association of Montenegro and Milan Petkovski from the Macedonian Occupational Safety and Health Association spoke to TV Budva about the regional workshop on "Building the Capacity of Civil Society Organizations and Key Stakeholders for the Implementation and Monitoring of Existing Occupational Health and Safety Regulations and Working Conditions" organized by the BALcanOSH network in Budva from October 5 to 7, 2022.

The training was held for representatives of trade unions, employers, occupational health physicians, educational institutions, occupational health and safety professionals, and employees as part of the project "Enhancing labour conditions and occupational safety and health as a support to the countries from the Western Balkan toward accessing European Union".

The objective of this training was to strengthen the capacity of key stakeholders involved in the implementation of occupational health and safety regulations and working conditions and to propose solutions to achieve six strategic goals identified as crucial in the occupational health and safety development strategy in the region by 2023.
