

Appearance on the "Our Rights" show on RTV Budva

November 16, 2022.

Dina Janković appeared on the "Our Rights" show on RTV Budva, discussing occupational health and safety in Montenegro. She talked about the conclusions of two regional workshops held in Budva from October 5 to 8 and from October 26 to 28, 2022. The topics of these workshops were:

- National policy for OHS:
- Effective legal framework and OHS policy
- OHS education
- Strengthening OHS capacities
- Promotion and raising public awareness of OHS
- OHS records
- Sectoral and intersectoral cooperation at the national and regional levels

During the show, the challenges were examined from various perspectives, including employers, employees, occupational health doctors, trade unions, Employers' Union, Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Education, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Ecology, Spatial Planning and Urbanism, Health Insurance Fund, Pension and Disability Insurance Fund, Inspectorate, civil society organizations, and the Ombudsman for Human Rights and Freedoms.

She also emphasized the necessity of introducing occupational health and safety into the education system.
